

Guidelines for manuscript submission

“Techno – Path” is publishing research papers, research reviews, book reviews etc. of contemporary relevance from all over the world in the fields of science, engineering and technology management.

1. Following types of contributions are considered for publication:

Full-Length Papers: containing quantitative, detailed material, set into perspective related to prior work and supported by literature, references and specific accomplishments. A typical Full-Length Paper should be approximately 4,000-5,000 words (including equations, tables, figures, images, and references), where each normal-sized, single-column figure, image or table counts as 200 words.

Review articles (not exceeding 4000 words cited references to be limited to about 30 in numbers) are expected to survey and discuss current developments in a field. They should be well focused and organized and avoid a general textbook style.

Research communications (not exceeding 600 words) contains important new findings that are novel and of fairly broad interest.

Research news articles (not exceeding 1000 words and two display items) are intended to inform non-specialists about recently published advances or important findings.

Commentary (not less than 1000 words) articles are expected to be expository essays on issues related to science, engineering and management activities.

Book reviews (not exceeding 800 words). Although Book Reviews are generally solicited / commissioned, unsolicited reviews will also be considered. Reviews must not merely ‘list’ brief descriptions of the contents of the book.

Historical commentary/notes (not exceeding 2500 words) inform readers about interesting aspects of personalities or institutions of science, engineering and management technology or about watershed events in the history/development of science, engineering and management technology. Brief items will also be considered.

2. The top right hand corner of the first page of the manuscript should indicate the section in which the article, review, communication etc to be classified. (Science, Engineering or Technology Management)

3. Format of the Paper: All parts of the manuscript should be typewritten (MS word only) in Times New Roman font size – 11 points, single-spaced, two column, with margins of at least one inch on all sides. The pages should be numbered consecutively starting with the title page. The title of the article should be concise (maximum of 12 words) without the use of acronyms or abbreviations. Authors should also supply a shortened version of the title suitable for the running head, not exceeding 50 character spaces. The author's name should appear below the title; the full name is preferred. The affiliation should follow in the next line, with the author's official title i.e. position in the college as Professor, Assistant Professor or Lecturer in MPSTME, NMIMS University. If He/ She is PhD guide in this university it should be mentioned. Students pursuing Ph.D. or PG degree in MPSTME should clearly mention their name as scholar of MPSTME, NMIMS University. This applies to all categories of papers. The text should be divided in to (i) Abstract (ii) Introduction (iii) Experimental (iv) Results and Discussion (v) Conclusion and (vi) References.

Abstract should be informative and summarize the principal findings of the work with in 100 words. Avoid abbreviations and diagrams. Abstract should be followed by not more than five keywords.

Introduction should be a brief assessment of prior work and an explanation of how the paper contributes to the field.

Experimental description should be given in detail sufficient for repetition by other researchers.

Result and Discussion should embrace first the results followed by a discussion of their significance. Only relevant results should be presented.

Conclusions should stand alone without either references or referrals to the main text for more details. That must be logically drawn from the text but not be just a summary of the paper.

References must be limited to readily accessible documents; i.e., those available from libraries, databases, or other public sources. They are to be numbered in the order in which they are cited (not listed alphabetically) and grouped at the end of the manuscript in the following form:

1. Journals: Norton, B., and Pavlenko, A., "Addressing Gender in the ESL/EFL Classroom," TESOL Quarterly Journal, Vol. 38, No. 3, 2004, pp. 504-513.

2. Books: Williams, S. R., Nutrition and Diet Therapy, 6th ed., Times Mirror / Mosby College Publishing, St. Louis, MO, 1989, pp. 92-119.
3. Book Series: Gee, J. P., "Identity as an Analysis Lens for Research in Education," Research in Education, edited by W. G. Secada, Vol. 25, Review of Research in Education, AIAA, New York, pp. 99-126, American Educational Research Association, Washington DC, 1985
4. Reports: Brook, E., and Bratman, H., "Using Compilers to Build Computers," Systems Development Corp., SP-176, Santa Monica, CA, Aug. 1960.
5. Transactions/Proceedings: Prior, P., "Are Communities of Practice Really an Alternative to Discourse Communities?," Proceedings of the Annual Conference of the American Association of Applied Linguistics, Vol. 1, American Association of Applied Linguistics, Arlington, VA, March 2003, pp. 50-63.
6. Article in an electronic journal

4. Acknowledgements should be as brief as possible.

5. Footnotes are normally not allowed except to the identity of the author for correspondence.

6. Illustrations submitted (line drawings, halftones, photos, photomicrographs, etc.) should be clean originals or digital files. Digital files are recommended for highest quality reproduction and should follow these guidelines:

- 300 dpi or higher
- Sized to fit on journal page
- EPS, TIFF, or PSD format only

It should be submitted as separate files, not embedded in text files. Color illustrations will be considered for publication.

7. Author and co authors must provide their biographies at the end of regular papers. The first paragraph may begin with the author's title and full name, a place and/or date of birth (list place, then date). Next, the author's educational background is listed. The degrees should be listed with type of degree in what field, which institution, city, state or country, and year. The author's major field of study should be in lowercase.

The second paragraph includes the current job with location; previous positions may be listed. Information concerning previous publications may be included. Try not to list more than three books or published articles. The format for listing publishers of a book within the biography is: title of book (city, state: publisher name, year) similar to a reference. Current and previous research interests should be given at the end of the paragraph.

If a pass port size photograph is provided, the biography will be indented around it. The photograph is placed at the top left of the biography. Personal hobbies will be deleted from the biography.
